

1994

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO SCAVENGER HUNT

OFFICIAL RULES

MAY 5 - 8, 1994

ARTICLE I: ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

1. The Scavenger Hunt is free and open to any person with University of Chicago affiliation, with the exception of members of the Scavenger Hunt Committee, or any other person designated Hunt Staff by the Chief Judge. Students may enter as teams associated with Houses in the University Housing System, Fraternities or Sororities of the University, as Recognized Student Organization, or as a group of independent, eligible individuals. Any eligible person may participate in any team.
2. The Designated Team Leader on a team's entry form, must be a currently registered student at the University.

ARTICLE II: THE LIST

1. At 12:00 noon on Thursday, May 5, 1994, one copy of a list of items will be placed in the mail folder of each Designated Team Leader. The teams may begin hunting upon receipt of the list. Any attempt to prevent any team's receipt of the list will result in disqualification.
2. A copy of this list may be used for any purpose. It may be photocopied. However, a neat, clean, and unmarked copy must be kept for judging day.
3. All items on the list can be acquired, manufactured, or performed (according to the specification of the list item itself). Nonetheless, the Scavenger Hunt Committee does not guarantee that all items on the list will be available to all teams.

ARTICLE III: THE HUNT

1. From the time of the receipt of the list until 12:00 noon, May 8, 1994, teams may acquire items on the list for judging purposes.
2. Participants in the Scavenger Hunt participate at their own risk and liability. No contract, oral or written, made by participants binds the Scavenger Hunt Committee, or any of its members. The Scavenger Hunt Committee is not responsible for the actions of the participants in the Hunt.
3. To the best knowledge and belief of the Scavenger Hunt Committee, all items on the list may be procured by legal means. The Scavenger Hunt Committee STRONGLY DISCOURAGES illegal behavior in any form. Don't call us from jail.
4. In order to answer any questions about items on the list, a Designated Team Leader meeting will be held promptly at 9:00pm on Thursday, May 5, 1994, in the main lobby of Ida Noyes Hall. The Chief Judge of the Scavenger Hunt will preside over that meeting, and his/her directions and decisions are final, and bind all teams. Only one representative from each team may attend this meeting. All teams are responsible for information disseminated at that meeting. At no other time will inquiries as to the list of items be entertained.

ARTICLE IV: THE COUNTING

1. At 11:00am on Sunday, May 8, 1994, teams may begin bringing any items they may have procured to Ida Noyes Hall. Each team will have an area and a table in Ida Noyes where its items may be deposited. The Designated Team Leader should report to the Chief Judge in the Scoring Room to receive his or her identification.
2. At 12:00 noon exactly, no more items may be brought into Ida Noyes Hall (except for one item to be announced during judging), no more Designated Team Leaders will receive credentials, and the judging will begin.
3. The Designated Team Leader must bring with him or her a clean copy of the list. It must be marked in ONLY the following manner: The items which a team has acquired will be marked with highlighter and the team name on the top of each page. No item which is not marked will be considered for points. Consistent marking of items which the team does not possess will result in a substantial penalty assessed by the Chief Judge.
4. The Designated Team Leader will present this highlighted list to the Chief Judge when he receives his identification. No more items may be highlighted after the list is given to the Chief Judge. The Judges will rotate through the teams each judging a page of items. A schedule of judging will be posted by 12:00 noon.

4. Each Judge, bearing identification as such, will come to each team's table during the judging and announce which page will be judged at this time. At this time, the Designated Team Leader should have his team organize all the items it had previously marked. The Judge will allow reasonable time for this to occur.
5. The Judge will then, in order, request the presentation of all marked items in that section. The team will have a reasonable period, not to exceed ten seconds (unless otherwise marked), to present that item to the judge.
6. Items will be judged in the following manner:
  - A. Any item which matches the description of the item on the list will receive all the points that are designated for that item.
  - B. The item must be whole and complete.
  - C. No representations of an item will be accepted. For example, if the list requests a "Steamboat," a boat which uses steam for propulsion will be accepted. However, a picture of a steamboat, a shirt bearing the word "Steamboat" or someone who has changed his/her name to "Steamboat" will not be accepted.
  - D. For those items which require the participation of a certain person or persons named in the list, that person only will be accepted. That person must have had the name for a period of not less than five years prior to the Scavenger Hunt.
  - E. A request must be made in advance if an item will not be available except at a certain time during judging. For example, if a "Steamboat" is to arrive at 12:30 and must leave at 1:00, you must request for a special judging of that item. If an item is not available for the entire day of judging, request a separate judging of that item. If the item is normally obtainable then a special judging will not be granted, this is at the discretion of the Chief Judge.
  - F. Requests for special judging may only be made at the Designated Team Leaders meeting or between 11:00am and 12:00 noon on the day of judging.
  - G. Any animals that are obtained for the hunt MUST be cared for properly and delivered to a safe home upon completion of the hunt. Domestic animals, or animals purchased for the hunt may not be set loose. Animals are not to be destroyed after the hunt. Teams that break this rule WILL have their prizes revoked and face possible administrative consequences.
  - H. Decisions of the Official Judges are final, and protests on the acceptance or denial of an item will not be accepted. If they are persistently made, the Chief Judge, after warning the Designated Team Leader, may assess a penalty not to exceed fifty thousand (50,000) points.
7. Only Designated Team Leaders bearing their identification as such may address Official Judges unless requested by the Judge or in the performance of the requirements of a list item. Any disrespectful, harassing, or rude behavior directed at Scavenger Hunt Judges or Staff will result in penalties assessed by the Chief Judge.
8. Only Designated Team Leaders bearing their identification as such may make protests. They may do so only in writing to the Chief Judge at the Scoring Room. The Chief Judge will rule on protests, and his/her ruling is final. Any protests made by a person who is not a Designated Team Leader will result in a penalty of one hundred (100) points.
9. At the conclusion of the judging, all items must be removed from Ida Noyes and its premises. Teams may NOT use the garbage dumpsters behind Ida Noyes to dispose of their items. Teams which do not comply with this rule may have their prizes revoked.
10. NO team member, Designated Team Leader, or other person not associated with Scavenger Hunt Committee will be admitted to the Scoring Room, under the penalty of death or disqualification, whichever comes last.

ARTICLE V: THE END

1. The teams will be ranked by the number of points they have received. The Chief Judge will present the ranking to the Scavenger Hunt Committee. The Scavenger Hunt Committee must vote in the majority to accept these as the official results of the Hunt.
2. The first place team will receive $500, the second place team will receive $250, and the third place team will receive $100. Teams in fourth through tenth place will receive $25. Awards will be made via check issued by the University Accounts Payable Office. All State and Federal Income taxes will apply to payments made to individuals.

GOOD HUNTING!

Some Hints For a Successful Hunt

(No particular order)

Understanding the questions:

- When you read over the question, try to understand what is really being asked about. For example, two years ago, we asked for a "blue pinto." I don't remember exactly how many points were being awarded but it was pretty low. The points awarded for the question should give a clue for what is wanted. We probably aren't asking you to get a full sized blue car if we offer such low points. Also, it should be noted that, as written, "pinto," being uncapitalized, is not a proper noun--this confirms that we aren't looking for the car.
- Each list has a theme though it is more apparent some years than others. Sometimes knowing the theme is important to answering the question. The theme for last year's hunt was "PC" --the key to answering which was better, Kirk or Picard. This year the theme isn't really obvious but I thought I would mention it anyway.

Weaseling:

- Usually, the committee designs the questions very thoughtfully and is extremely specific with wording. Even so, there are sometimes ways to weasel around a question. If you are thinking about trying to weasel a question, here are some tips:
  - be very creative about your weaseling--especially if you are trying for a high point item.
  - if you think your weasel is plausible, you may not want to ask about it specifically at the captain's meeting--it may be denied
  - don't have too many expectations--judge's discretion applies. Even if you have a great weasel which is legal by the wording given, a judge may not point it--this is exactly why you should be creative. An example from two years ago: We asked for a full-sized Ferrari. Some team brought a woman with the last name of Ferrari. We gave it full points. It was innovative, showed creativity and was legal by the given wording. However, if asked at the captain's meeting whether this would be legitimate, the answer would have been "no."

Organization:

- divide and conquer--teams that do so tend to do very well.
- on the day of the judging, bring items some order. e.g., one box per page or something.
- plan the roadtrip. Sit down with a map and plan a route instead of driving off without a clue. The judges go on the roadtrip and don't zig-zag crazily. If you can figure out the route, things go much easier. See what you need to bring and take it along. Call back to base frequently. Bring extra copies of the list and be very familiar with them--things tend to pop up right in front of you. Historically, teams that go on the road trip finish well.
- remember on the day of judging that judges can get tired and cranky. Thoughtful captains will sent the obnoxious and longwinded on last minute errands to the ends of the earth to avoid the wrath of an annoyed judge. Only the captain should talk to the judge during the judging of the page. Judges are really loose with this rule unless the others talking are persistently pestering and complaining. We want this to be fun for everyone but we don't want to take a lot of shit either.

Blood Drive:

- do the blood drive!!! It's an easy and it offers mega points. This year the blood drive constitutes almost 10% of the total possible points.

Don't be a dick:

- the idea of this whole thing is to have fun and get out of Hyde Park and the drudgery of daily life. If you're only here to win the money--there are much better and more efficient ways of earning it and you are wasting your precious time.
- in the past, teams have wrecked the hunt by sabotaging other teams, buying out specific things on the road trip so that other teams couldn't get them later and various other malicious things. Don't be a jerk--be honorable--people will like you more.
- sometimes teams do consist of nasties and their friends--try not to tempt them by making it easy to mess you up. Protect your items and itineraries.

Be kind to our friends the animals:

-Each year, we have new and interesting items that include animals. Please try to think ahead so that animals get proper care and good treatment. If the animal is something that can't be kept after the hunt, find a home for it before you get it.

People and time specific items:

-if you can't have a particular item present at the judging of a page--say a person is arriving at a certain time--tell the judges long in advance to get points (see rules!)
-if you have a particular person coming like a Hooter's waitress, make sure that the guest knows what team they are helping. Confusion on which team the points should go through is terrible.

Cost:

-Items are designed to be available at no cost or low cost. Instead of shelling out a lot of cash and hoping to place well, try to be imaginative and save money. Many times, you can get what you need by begging the right person.

Attitude:

-Above all--have fun. Congratulate other teams on their accomplishments. Remember that after Sunday we'll all still be here, ranked #300 in social life, with four weeks until summer. Inhale deeply. Enjoy the list and the roadtrip. Collect memories, stories and souvenirs.
